

ADVERTISEMENT.

NO AND YES!

Q. Can I buy stocks, bonds and mortgages with the certainty of avoiding loss of principal or default in interest?

A. NO! Countless millions have been lost through stock and bond depreciation and mortgage foreclosures.

Q. Can I buy Guaranteed Mortgage and know that my principal is safe and interest sure?

A. YES! We have sold to investors over $420,000,000 of our Guaranteed Mortgages, without a dollar of loss to any investor.

LAWYERS MORTGAGE CO.

RICHARD M. HURD, President
Capital, Surplus & P. $9,000,000
53 Liberty Street, Manhattan
131 Montague Street, Brooklyn

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

JAPANESE SEEK TO PUNISH CHINA

Demands Would Destroy Their Power in Inner Mongolia, Chinese Say.

Peking, China, Sept. 3.—Baron Goshu Hayashi, the Japanese Minister to China, has presented to the Chinese Foreign Office four demands for a settlement of the clash between Chinese and Japanese troops at Chengchiatun, in Eastern Mongolia, August 13, when fifty Chinese and seventeen Japanese were killed or wounded. The Japanese demands follow:

First—Elimination of the Chinese officers in command of the troops. Second—The withdrawal of Chinese troops from the district in which the trouble arose. Third—Indemnification of the families of the Japanese killed. Fourth—The granting to Japan of police rights in Inner Mongolia.

The Japanese insist the demands are light but the Chinese officials regard them as virtually an elimination of Chinese authority in Inner Mongolia.

AVIATOR'S MEDALS STOLEN

Captain Parla, of Cuban Army, Tells Police They Took Flight.

Newspaper accounts are all Captain Augustin Parla, of the aviation corps of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

of the Cuban army, has left to show for his achievements in the war. Until recently he possessed eighteen diamond-studded gold medals, awarded to him by the Cuban government, but these, he told the Third Branch Detective Bureau yesterday, were stolen from his trunk aboard the Ward Line Morro Castle, on which he arrived from Havana August 27.

Both the medals and the box which held them were missing, he said, when he arrived at the Hotel Bon Ray, Ninety-second Street and Madison Avenue.

M'CORMICK SURE HUGHES WILL WIN

Says Eighty Per Cent of Western Moose Are for Candidate.

PREDICTS 200,000 VICTORY IN ILLINOIS

Perkins's Visitor Tells of New Vigor Put into G. O. P. Campaign.

Modell McCormick, who describes himself as the most "outrageous Progressive in Illinois," was a guest of George W. Perkins yesterday, before going to Maine to speak for the Republicans. He can see nothing but the election of Charles E. Hughes in November.

"Eighty per cent of the Progressives in the Western states I have heard from are for Hughes," said McCormick yesterday, "and in California I believe the percentage is even higher."

McCormick does not believe the Republican managers faced cold facts at the start of the campaign, but now that they realize they have a fight on their hands he expects to see new vigor in the campaign.

New Vigor in Campaign.

"We have reached a place where the issues are going to be joined," he said, "and there is going to be an injection of vigor. The Southern Pacific crowd tried to kidnap Hughes when he was in California, and it would have hurt the Republican party if Governor Johnson had not been nominated. His nomination not only assures California to the Republicans, however, but it releases Johnson to campaign in the state, and releases other men who would have had to be sent there."

"How my own State of Illinois will go depends largely upon the vote of the women, but I expect to see 200,000 majority for Hughes. All of the Progressives, with the exception of one county, are for him, and are working in harmony with the Republicans. The same is true of Indiana. There is no fight in Michigan that amounts to anything, and there is no difficulty in the Dakotas."

"The Nebraska Progressive committee has endorsed Hughes, and there is complete harmony in Kansas. Hughes is the Hughes of old, despite Democratic claims to the contrary, and is getting a hold on the people."

Wilson's Fault, Shown.

"I cannot see any definite philosophy in the course of Mr. Wilson. I have no doubt he is imitating Disraeli, who inserted in his Parliamentary program those things he had opposed in his preceding election. From now on, I believe the people's attention will be drawn more and more to the inconsistencies of the President."

"The President's speech was as good mission will take the whole problem out of politics. It is my hope that experts will be named and that the body will be continuous and vested almost with the dignity of the Supreme Court.

"They say Wilson has blundered. Perhaps he has. But I notice he usually blunders forward. You can't get 100 per cent efficiency in a democracy. I don't know that we ought to want it. We would be machines and we would have to sacrifice too much of freedom."

"I have never known so many dangerous questions brought up for decision to any one President. Facing the railroad strike, he is acting with his usual courage and sanity."

"In my opinion Mr. Hughes, if President, would find it difficult to decide on the best course for the government to take in this strike. His specialty for hindsight, as we learn from his speeches, is highly developed, but as to his foresight we are not equally well informed."

"Mr. Wilson has now had about four years of experience and he has earned faith and trust of the Supreme Court. I don't know that we ought to want it. We would be machines and we would have to sacrifice too much of freedom."

"Roosevelt was my choice. He has had experience, and is one of the best of Americans, but the machine-controlled Republican party would not have him; therefore I am for Woodrow Wilson."

BATHERS SEE BLAZE WRECK ASBURY HOTEL

Cigarette Blamed—Firemen Save Patrons' Jewelry.

Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 3.—Fire shortly before noon today wrecked the Hotel Colon, Third Avenue and Kingsley Street, headquarters of the Latin-American colony in this city. A cigarette thrown upon the shingle roof of a porch is blamed for the blaze, which destroyed the two upper floors and wrecked five stores on the ground floor.

Hundreds of bathers rushed a block from the beach to view the spectacle. Many were living in nearby hotels, and at first feared their own structures were burning.

Firemen scooped up a quantity of jewelry, which was later displayed at Police Headquarters for identification. There were 145 patrons quartered at the hotel, which was conducted by E. Ortega, proprietor of the Colon Hotel, 113 West Eighty-eighth Street, New York. The property is owned by Justus E. Ralph, of this city and New York.

PERKINS CALLED ON JURY

Corleou Also Summoned in Bronx Building Collapse Inquest.

With the return of Borough President Douglas Mathewson tomorrow a thorough reorganization in the Bronx Building Department is predicted as a result of Coroner William J. Flynn's investigation into the recent collapse of a five-story brick building in course of construction at Marion Avenue and 180th Street. Six persons are charged with manslaughter in connection with the collapse, which cost two lives.

George W. Perkins and George B. Corleou are named in a panel of forty jurors summoned for the inquest, which is set for Wednesday.

Boy's Body Found in East River.

The police of Harbor Squad E yesterday received the body of Max Finkelstein, nine years old, of 112 East 100th Street, who had been drowned while swimming in the East River at 110th Street. He was identified by his father, Louis Finkelstein.

Praises Tariff Stand.

"His attitude on the tariff shows an openness of mind. A tariff com-

T. A. EDISON OUT TO HELP WILSON

Praises President's Mexican and Foreign Policies.

AGAINST CHANGE TO UNTRIED MAN

Inventor Declares It Is Man, Not Party, That Counts.

Asserting that the times were too serious to think in terms of Republicanism or Democracy, and that it was the man and not the party that counted, Thomas A. Edison declared yesterday his intention of supporting Woodrow Wilson for reelection. Mr. Edison sent a statement to Democratic headquarters here from Saratoga Springs, praising Wilson's course in Mexico and praising him for maintaining peace in this country.

The inventor had been a lifelong Republican until 1912, when he supported Theodore Roosevelt, so that his change this time is a complete switch.

"Not since 1860," Mr. Edison said, "has any campaign made such a direct call on simple Americanism. Real Americans must drop parties and get down to big fundamental principles."

"More than any other President in my memory Wilson has been faced by a succession of tremendous problems, any one of which, decided the wrong way, would have had disastrous consequences. Wilson's decisions so far have not got us into any serious trouble, nor are they likely to."

Peace with Honor.

"He has given us peace with honor. This talk about the United States being despised is nonsense. Neutrality is a mighty trying policy, but back of it is international law, the rights of humanity and the future of civilization."

"With reference to Mexico, I think that the President acted wisely, justly and courageously. It was right that the United States should not have recognized such a murderous personality as Huerta. I do not believe we should have intervened, nor that we should have intervened now. Mexico is a troublesome neighbor just now, but war and conquest are not going to make her a better one. Both against England and against human slavery the United States worked out its salvation through revolution, and it was a slow, trying process."

"It has been said that Wilson at first was against preparedness. Perhaps he was, but when convinced that intelligent public opinion was overwhelmingly in favor of it he changed. That is the proper thing for our Presidents to do. A President defiant of public opinion would be a dangerous man in our system of government."

Praises Tariff Stand.

"His attitude on the tariff shows an openness of mind. A tariff com-

STRIKE CRISIS OVERSHADOWS WILSON SPEECH

Washington Feels President's Words Will Have Little Political Effect.

DEBATE IN SENATE POINTS REAL ISSUE

Both Sides See in Labor Situation Great Possibilities for Votes.

(From The Tribune Bureau.)

Washington, Sept. 3.—In the tension of the final moments of the strike crisis yesterday, while Congress under the lash of the brotherhood leaders was juggling its own dignity to the winds in forcing through an eight-hour law, President Wilson's speech of acceptance passed almost unnoticed here. Neither Democrats nor Republicans rushed breathlessly to the newspapers to find what issues the President had laid down for the campaign. Shadow Law, as far as its effect on the political barometer was concerned, might have been on the moon.

The phenomenon was unusual. It could only be duplicated back in the years when the Republicans used to take elections merely as a matter of form, worrying only about the size of the majorities. But yesterday both Democrats and Republicans had the feeling that what the President said, no matter how forcefully he might say it, was destined, beside the larger issue forming before them, to have little effect on the campaign.

Beside the strike situation and the dynamite it contained, nobody cared about the past performances of the Democratic party, to which the Presi-

Advance Fall Models

now ready in Suits, Coats, Dresses, Skirts

Lane Bryant MATERNITY

Apparel—modish, up-to-the-minute styles for every occasion. Differ in no outward way from prevailing modes; therefore conceal condition.

Dresses $1.45 to $74.50
Coats 6.50 to 34.75
Suits 10.50 to 39.50
Skirts 2.45 to 29.75
Waists 1.45 to 14.75
Negligees 1.50 to 39.75

Corsets and Underwear

Lane Bryant, 25 W. 38th St.

Lane Bryant, 25 W. 38th St.

UNITED STATES PARCEL POST COMPUTER

FOR NEW YORK CITY, JERSEY CITY, NEWARK, and Towns Listed on Inside Cover

Legal Zone 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8
3 6 7 7 10 15 20 25 31 36

WASHINGTON, D. C.
Patent Applied For. Copyright 1916

PRICE 25 CENTS

Trade Supplied by . . .

B. B. BORG
44 E. 23rd STREET
Gramercy 3177 NEW YORK CITY

Just For Example

Suppose you want to send a three-pound parcel to one of the New York soldier boys, stationed at San Antonio.

Easy!

Open the Computer, and under the heading "Texas" you will find that San Antonio is in Zone No. 7.

Then pull down the index card between the double front cover until the figure "3" appears in the hole marked "Lbs." Glance along the holes to the one marked "Zone 7," and there you will see that the package will cost 31 cents.

Note in the illustration to the left that we have pictured the Computer exactly when it has worked that out for you.

So for all weights and all places.

Mighty handy, isn't it? Wait until you commence to send off packages for the holiday season, and it will be your closest friend!

RIGHT UP TO DATE

All the latest, final changes in the Parcel Post regulations are embodied in the Computer, and it contains the regulations themselves in full. Whether you want to send to United States destinations or not, whether you want to register or insure, or send C. O. D., you cannot go wrong.

DON'T GUESS—AND GO WRONG!

Our Parcel Post Computer Gives the Exact Postage on Any Package to All Parts of the United States or Foreign Possessions

Just For Example

Suppose you want to send a three-pound parcel to one of the New York soldier boys, stationed at San Antonio.

Easy!

Open the Computer, and under the heading "Texas" you will find that San Antonio is in Zone No. 7.

Then pull down the index card between the double front cover until the figure "3" appears in the hole marked "Lbs." Glance along the holes to the one marked "Zone 7," and there you will see that the package will cost 31 cents.